

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is the fee to join the Heads Up Football® Insurance Program?

There is no fee to access the insurance program.

Are coaches, volunteers and fulltime employee(s) of your organization included in the program?

Yes for the General Liability.

Are cheerleaders included?

Yes. Cheerleaders are included as participants of the program, similar to youth tackle or flag players.

Are cheerleading competitions, outside of a game, also included?

Yes. League sanctioned competitions that take place during the season or during the offseason are included.

Are fundraisers that fall out of season included?

Yes. This falls under the General Liability. Additionally this includes participant registration and community service events.

Is there an additional charge to produce Certificates of Insurance?

No. EPIC Sports and Entertainment incurs this cost and produces all Certificates of Insurance in-house.

Is the rate for General Liability and Accident & Health coverage combined?

No. The General Liability coverage has a set rate based on number of teams per organization and the limits you require. The Accident & Health coverage is priced separately, based on the number of total youth participants.

How long does it take to produce a quote?

Once your application for coverage has been submitted to EPIC Sports and Entertainment, it will take approximately 1-2 business days to produce a quote.